Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Job's Daughters is an organization comprised of young women ages 10 to 20 and are related to Master Masons; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters has 12 Bethels in the state of South Dakota with a membership of over 157; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters is an organization to prepare young women to be active young leaders in religious, civic, and community activities, as well as fraternal and social organizations, and in all cases funded on their own; and,

Whereas, The teachings are based on the Book of Job 42:15, "And in all the land no other women were as beautiful as the daughters of Job, and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren"; and,

Whereas, At the state level, there are many college scholarships, and each Bethel has a fundraiser for the scholarship and Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment (HIKE) programs; and,

Whereas, Job's Daughters are taught to respect their parents, teachers, and the elderly; to love their home, family, and country; and to strongly believe in morality and high standards for themselves and their companions; and,

Whereas, April 10, 2010, has been set aside as the day of the state fundraising for HIKE in Pierre, South Dakota, for the purpose of adding to the many thousands of dollars they raised during the past few years for children with impaired hearing:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 10, 2010, as in South Dakota, and call upon the people of this state to recognize the importance of sustained community involvement in safeguarding the lives of our youngest and most precious citizens.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
